The valedictorian for the Class of 2018 is Makenzie Anderson, and the salutatorian is Taylor Davis.

The 2018 junior marshals have also been announced. These are the five members of the junior class with the highest cumulative GPAs. Congratulations to Alyssa Still, Lexie Thomason, Mercy Barigala, Walker Burt, and Kayla Hutto.

It is almost time for course registration for the 2018-2019 school year. Parents will need to call the guidance office to schedule a registration appointment. Guidance counselors will be meeting with each student and his/her parents in the BHS Guidance Office on the following dates: rising seniors on February 19-22, rising juniors on February 26 & 28 and March 1 & 2, rising sophomores on March 6-9, and rising freshmen on March 13-16. Meetings for the rising freshmen will be held at GBMS, and parents of rising ninth grade students will need to call GBMS to schedule appointments.

The following BHS Seniors have signed letters of intent to play college sports. Adrienne Childs will be playing soccer for USC Salkehatchie, Pete Elmore will be playing football for Newberry College, Mykal Lee will be playing football for Georgia Military, and Mariah Stone will be playing soccer for USC Salkehatchie. Congratulations to our Warhorse athletes!
