

STABLE TALK

News from the Campus of Barnwell High School

Wednesday, September 20, 2017

BHS may have had a shortened school week due to Hurricane Irma, but there was definitely no shortage of excitement on Friday, September 15. Mrs. Lisa Wyndham and the student council are to be commended for coordinating the week's homecoming events, especially the homecoming parade and the half-time activities. A special thank you is extended to the head coaches of all of Barnwell's past state championship teams for serving as the parade's grand marshals. The football team carried on the winning tradition with a 34-14 win over the Swansea Tigers. After an open week, the undefeated Warhorses will begin their Region 5 play on Friday, September 29, when they travel to Calhoun County.
